ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $723,056.21 through the Clerk, U.S. District Court, Attn: Cashier's Office, for disbursement to the victims identified on page 4. Restitution shall be made according to the schedule set forth on page 5. Restitution is imposed jointly and severally with any co-conspirator.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of business, vehicle, or any other premises under his control to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant must seek and maintain full-time employment.

The defendant will not engage in the business of buying or selling real estate for a profit, including but not limited to, refinancing real estate, brokering loans, dealing in mortgages, or constructing homes for sale. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to preclude the defendant from purchasing or refinancing his own home for purposes of residing in that home or selling his personal residence. To the extent the defendant seeks employment to work in construction, the defendant may do so subject to prior approval of his probation officer.

The defendant is to provide the Probation Department access to any and all requested financial information.

The defendant must not incur any new credit card charges or open any new credit line without approval of Probation.

The defendant shall notify the U.S. Attorney's Office for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.

The defendant shall be supervised by the district of residence.
